Fiddletown Cellars

2012 Old Vine Zinfandel Amador County

30% New French Oak was used to help build structure and mouthfeel for 18 months. Chewy on the palate with red and black fruit, this Zin has an earthiness reminiscent of tobacco pipes. Oaky on the finish, it's self-contained and smooth with its peppery spirit riding shotgun. Impressive and readily drinkable.

Fiddletown Cellars

2012 Old Vine Zinfandel Amador County

30% New French Oak was used to help build structure and mouthfeel for 18 months. Chewy on the palate with red and black fruit, this Zin has an earthiness reminiscent of tobacco pipes. Oaky on the finish, it's self-contained and smooth with its peppery spirit riding shotgun. Impressive and readily drinkable.

Fiddletown Cellars

2012 Old Vine Zinfandel Amador County

30% New French Oak was used to help build structure and mouthfeel for 18 months. Chewy on the palate with red and black fruit, this Zin has an earthiness reminiscent of tobacco pipes. Oaky on the finish, it's self-contained and smooth with its peppery spirit riding shotgun. Impressive and readily drinkable.

Fiddletown Cellars

2012 Old Vine Zinfandel Amador County

30% New French Oak was used to help build structure and mouthfeel for 18 months. Chewy on the palate with red and black fruit, this Zin has an earthiness reminiscent of tobacco pipes. Oaky on the finish, it's self-contained and smooth with its peppery spirit riding shotgun. Impressive and readily drinkable.

Fiddletown Cellars

2012 Old Vine Zinfandel Amador County

30% New French Oak was used to help build structure and mouthfeel for 18 months. Chewy on the palate with red and black fruit, this Zin has an earthiness reminiscent of tobacco pipes. Oaky on the finish, it's self-contained and smooth with its peppery spirit riding shotgun. Impressive and readily drinkable.

Fiddletown Cellars

2012 Old Vine Zinfandel Amador County

30% New French Oak was used to help build structure and mouthfeel for 18 months. Chewy on the palate with red and black fruit, this Zin has an earthiness reminiscent of tobacco pipes. Oaky on the finish, it's self-contained and smooth with its peppery spirit riding shotgun. Impressive and readily drinkable.

Fiddletown Cellars

2012 Old Vine Zinfandel Amador County

30% New French Oak was used to help build structure and mouthfeel for 18 months. Chewy on the palate with red and black fruit, this Zin has an earthiness reminiscent of tobacco pipes. Oaky on the finish, it's self-contained and smooth with its peppery spirit riding shotgun. Impressive and readily drinkable.

Fiddletown Cellars

2012 Old Vine Zinfandel Amador County

30% New French Oak was used to help build structure and mouthfeel for 18 months. Chewy on the palate with red and black fruit, this Zin has an earthiness reminiscent of tobacco pipes. Oaky on the finish, it's self-contained and smooth with its peppery spirit riding shotgun. Impressive and readily drinkable.

Fiddletown Cellars

2012 Old Vine Zinfandel Amador County

30% New French Oak was used to help build structure and mouthfeel for 18 months. Chewy on the palate with red and black fruit, this Zin has an earthiness reminiscent of tobacco pipes. Oaky on the finish, it's self-contained and smooth with its peppery spirit riding shotgun. Impressive and readily drinkable.

